DECORATE THE CITY.

Mr. C H Callaban, Master of Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons, epaks as follows concerning the proposed memorial to be erect din this ctr.

"Few people in Alexandria, indeed only a few Alexandria Masons, have stopped to consider the full import of the contemplated memorial to be erected in this city.

"The first t us Masonic Temple, known in bistory, was that erect d by the wiscat of all sucients, King Silomon, and ar und this historical structure has been woven the betu i u' Masonic story which has come down to us through the distant cer tu ies. How it has survived the through the dark ages to be resurrect d in its wonderfully complete fapric of today is beyond the concept on and undenstanding of the most learned and accomplished nembers of the crait, yet anch is the fact

"The existence of this parrat ve in all its marvelous perfection, with its beaut' ful symbolic lesson is the subliment thought and chiefest charm in the secret of Masoury, "Signs and symbols and tokens and words are only substitut is for the security and recegnition of the individual Mason, until time shall be no more and becken legions of men from every walk of life to come in the future as it has in the past and listen to the inspiring theme that began in the twilight of his tory and will live to the Millenium's dawn, because it is well.

"What the Temple on Mount Moriah was to the sucients the memorial to Washington will be to the moderns, i the proposed plan is successful. The eyes of the Masonic world will be turned to old Alexandria as the Mecca and shrine of the symstic tie. "Every patriotic citizen, who has an it threat in the welfare of the city, should be deeply and personally interested in this great movement on the 22nd of February. Unless some untoward event occure to prevent, our city will witness the greatest gathering of Masonic dignitares ever assembled at one and the same time. This alone is an evidence of the deep interest manifested by the craft of America and the importance of this prothe people of Alexandria will fittingly should be decorated in some way as an evidence of our approval and endorsement of the undertaking. Let us make it manifest to these strangers, who are traveling from all sections of the count 'y, that we are united in our approval of the undertaking of the local fraternity."

[COMMUNICATED. A QUERY.

Now that the City Council has found it advisable to extand the city fire limits the writer would ask when the time is to come when they will make streets in the section over which the fire limits extend. During the twelve years that I have been in business on north Payne street I have built twenty-three dwellings, besides the establishment I now occupy. I have paid the city for licenses and taxes several thousand dollars, yet, during this time not one cent has been spent by the city for permanent improvements on said street. About once a year the ditches (not gutters) are scraped out with hoes and the litter is hauled away and nothing more is done until the saniary condition of the city is investigated the next year when the same operation is repeated. The property owners on north Payne street several years ago asked for cobble at me gutters and a gravel roadway, but as yet have never gotten even a cart load of cinders or ashes in the mud holes which are now wide and
